Guo Wuwen,

Thank you for your patience, Wire Payment was issued yesterday for the remaining balance of USD 300.00. The catalogs have also been sent in the mail today.

Robert Cooney wanted me to let you know that he was extremely pleased with David Zhang's performance and was very impressed by his knowledge and ability to assist our customers in understanding the presentation. Mr. Zhang was very professional, knowledgeable, punctual and courteous. He outperformed our greatest expectations and we will definitely request his assistance again whenever the need arises. We will also highly recommend him to anyone needing interpreting services. Please thank Mr. Zhang again for his outstanding service and help to make our sales presentation such a great success.

We also would like to thank you for your excellent assistance and performance in translating and typesetting our 100+ page catalog on such short notice and quick time table and for recommending David Zhang for our meeting. Your services were integral to making our meeting a true success.

We look forward to utilizing your services for any requirements in the future.

Thank you again.

Best regards,

David Brown
